

Everyday

En Vogue

Sit down, let me tell you what's been on my mind all day
See, I've been thinking about the love we share in a special way
And it feels good
To know that I can count on you
To love me like I know you should Listen boy
I've had a few encounters with others on the sly
Neither one of 'em ever made me feel so high
And it's all right
'cause everytime you come, you come correct
And I can't take it when you blow my mind, so

Everyday, I call you, I page you, yeah
Everyday, I miss you, I wanna kiss you, yeah
Everyday, I reminisce on time spent, yeah
Everyday, I wanna beg you please, do it again
Just do it again, do it again,
Just do it again, do it again,
Last night, you walked outta my house before I said goodbye
I was under a spell of love, and I can't deny
Your love is tight
And there can't be no confusion when it comes to how you put it down
I know, that it's oh so good for me to think that it's all mine
They say you spread it thin, my girls tell me all the time
You're not my kind
But they don't know the things you do, and when you're doing them to me, so

Let's do it in the morning
Sweet dreams come summertime
Don't you know sweet baby
Just givin' good, just givin' good, just givin' good love
