

Crossroad

Enbound

I've never found my home
Never been so strong
My reflection, I'm on my own

Live through a shell
A conscious choice
Don't need your spells
I listen to my inner voice

Aware of the guiding lines
Why? I make my own

Travel at the speed of light
At the crossroad I'm waiting for the last of sights
Have I reached the end?
Unknown fate
The crossroad helps me find my final gate
Last wish attends

Never lived so hard
Have always given my heart
Interceptions of my minds art

Live through a shell
A conscious choice
Don't need your spells
I listen to my inner voice

Choice...
Aware of the guiding lines
Why? I make my own

Travel at the speed of light
At the crossroad I'm waiting for the last of sights
Have I reached the end?
Unknown fate
The crossroad helps me find my final gate
Last wish attends
