

Get Ready For

Enbound

You never had the light in your eyes, never accomplished anything but lies
The world is sick and you have to change, you try to act but it all strikes back so strange

One day I will return and make up for what you've done
I will harm you but my mind tells me no
I'll let you go but you need to know

Get ready for...
You better run and hide
(Get ready for me)
I want to scream out loud

Get ready for...
I'll set my fears aside
(Get ready for me)
You can never break me down

It's all in vain, it's all in vain
But I hope I gave you something for your pain

You are so false... I can't breathe
Why don't you try... and let it be
Don't drag your stories here
I just, I just wanna disappear

One day I will return and make up for what you've done
I will harm you but my mind tells me no
I'll let you go but you need to know

Get ready for...
You better run and hide
(Get ready for me)
I want to scream out loud

Get ready for...
I'll set my fears aside
(Get ready for me)
You can never break me down

It's all in vain...

Get ready for...
You better run and hide
(Get ready for me)
I want to scream out loud

Get ready for...
I'll set my fears aside
(Get ready for me)
You can never break me down

I'll set my fears aside
You can never break me down
