End of Green

Deep black clouds Disappear into the void So dark my soul will be You always shine so bright

And I left it all behind on the right She'll wash away, she'll wash away my pain

And I left it all behind on the right She'll wash away, she'll wash away my pain So I'm running, I'm running away, I'm running away, So I'm running, I'm running away, I'm running away

I'll disappear I'll disappear in the void I'll disappear I'll disappear in the void Disappear in the void

Deep black clouds Disappear into the void So dark my soul will be You always shine so bright

And I left it all behind on the right She'll wash away, she'll wash away my pain So I'm running, I'm running away, I'm running away, So I'm running, I'm running away, I'm running away

I'll disappear I'll disappear in the void I'll disappear I'll disappear in the void Disappear in the void
