

Queen Of My Dreams

End of Green

Somewhere out there but far away.
Still crying loud, now I can hear.
A calling of you has saved me before I fall.
No longer pain, dead empty place.
Beautiful queen still of my dreams.
You are the one who's living under my skin.
Queen of my dreams, beautiful and silver,
queen of my dreams, drown in you forever and everlong.
You are my queen of day and night.
Still be my life and suicide.
Queen of the sun and the light and endless dark,
still I'm lying on your grave.
No longer life and no more taste,
the evening wind will take me home to you.
Still I'm lying on your grave.
No longer life and no more taste, still I lie,
still I lie, on your grave, on your grave
