Sleep

End of Green

Follow me into my garden I will show you some things of the future follow me give me your hand we will walk into strange lands

Follow me never walk alone I will show what we have done the night is dark as I die