

Infest

END

Eager throats choke on their poison Eucharist
Premature cremation
A willing sacrifice
A cancer conceived and concealed will cling to nearby organs and infest (Infest)

You collapse at the foot of your curse
The flood had been foreshadowed, yet you drown (Yet you drown)

Eager throats choke on their poison Eucharist
Premature cremation

A willing sacrifice
Writhe, a parasite
A willing sacrifice
With your neck craned towards an empty sky
A willing sacrifice
Writhe, a parasite
A willing sacrifice
With your neck craned towards an empty sky

I watched you die

Swallow your salvation
You don't deserve to be saved

A willing sacrifice
A willing sacrifice

Staring in a shattered mirror
I saw you struggling for breath
And watched you die

Writhe, a parasite

I watched you die
I watched you die
