

Usurper

END

Fucking usurper, possession by default
Spend another night sleeping beside my ghost
Proprietary sin, no longer of this Earth
A poltergeist inside my former home

No sun will set for me
Forced to find shelter in the shadows
Or inside a blackened heart
I cling to useless arteries
But they can't withstand the weight of worldly burden
And neither can I

This body is not yours
No sanctuary
Underneath familiar skin
You are nothing but a surrogate

Persecution of the soul will lead to false imprisonment
Unrelenting isolation breeds eternal suffering
Eternal suffering

Usurper
This body isn't yours
Usurper
This body isn't yours
