

Final Conflict

Enforcer

We'll show the night, As we walk by twilight,
In our eyes, We've been drawn down this road.
We've all been forgiven, and now are the men of night.
To relinquish all sin and sorrow, but not our crime!

We're concentrating, Yes our thoughts have been abused.
The ozone's been blown away, and the cold,
Like a needle flows through.
So if we're strong we shall stay, Show your fist.
The warring factor's been here to deliver, the Final Conflict!

No response for tomorrow, Ground Zero today.
Disillusioned minds, no sorrow, Have you nothing to say?

Together, you may find yourselves on the open road.
My eyes are closing to the sound of my heavy load.
Together we may wind up the proper way.
That sting, no problems,
Important minds have no delay.
No sorrow, no delay.
You're standing on ground zero.
You're standing on it today!
