

Heartbeats

Enforcer

You can't run away from the darkness
You keep on running but there's nowhere to stay
Can you feel the eyes of the nighttime?
You feel them staring and you can not get away

Heartbeats
Can you feel the pounding heartbeats
Heartbeats
Can you feel the pounding heartbeats
As you lay awake at night

Never dream the dreams about tomorrow
Cause the dreams they are living in the absence of light
Never dream the dreams about the future
Cause the dreams grow in the heart of the night

No thing or no one
Escape the clutches of time
As you sit alone and wondering
Midnight clocks will chime

Heartbeats
Can you feel the pounding heartbeats
Heartbeats
Can you feel the pounding heartbeats
And you feel the light shine in
Yet it's coming up again

Heartbeats
Can you feel the pounding heartbeats at night
Oh
Can you feel the pounding oh oh oh oh
Whoa
Come on
Can you feel the pounding heartbeats at night
Come on
Can you feel the pounding oh oh oh oh
Whoa
Come on, give it up, give it up
Can you feel the pounding heartbeats at night
Come on, give it up
Can you feel the pounding heartbeats at night
