

Nostalgia

Enforcer

The loneliness
Is consuming me
The pain of loss
Is all I see
As I think of all that used to be

Years have come
And years have gone
Strings of light
Don't stay for long
Unstoppably time is marching on

In hopeless desperation
I remember times that gone
All the dreams and all the hope we had died young

The tooth of time
Has grinded down
All the things
That I once was
The memories
The youth within
To dust

Nothing remain
Or stayed the same
All that's been
Is withered gray
To ashes from a never ending flame

And in hopeless desperation
I remember times that've gone
All the dreams and all the hope we had died young

Nostalgia
Nostalgia
Nostalgia
Nostalgia
All the dreams that died

Nostalgia
Nostalgia
All the dreams that died

Nostalgia
All the dreams that died
