

Regrets

Enforcer

Regrets
Echos die in the corridors
Fade away in the marble halls
Fading away

Regrets
I remember you danced with me
To a pale morbid symphony
The devil inside us, led us

Never let me go
Calling you
From the void
Never let me go
Reaching from the cold

I will follow your every lead
Here is now nothing more for me
Nothing for me

Regrets I will leave now in harmony
Trade this life for a breathless sleep
In soulless, heartless, darkness

Never let me go
Calling you
From the void
Never let me go
Reaching from the cold

Light of day
Won't bother us no more
