

Sail On

Enforcer

The sun descends
And the memories of life will fade away
A drifting heart anchored by you

Silence speaks
The shattering night won't turn to day
Our barren souls face something new

Sail on! Sail on!
Sail on with you

This hazy night
The fire will cease inside of me
My shattered heart was heard for you

Now we sail away
As a silent tern on an open sea
Bid all afflictions adeu

Sail on! Sail on!
Sail on with you

Sail on! Sail on!
Just sail on with you

Just sail on! Sail on!
Just sail on with you

Sail on with you
