

Serching for You

Enforcer

Sacrifice for my bloodline
Face my death face my fate
I see the light of my past life
Full of wrath, full of hate

I care for nothing when I'm hunting
Trough the endless night
Fear my evil 'cause I do

Take my pleasure for vengeance
All the torture and pain
I won't stop 'till I find you
All my fury remains

I catch your blood scent when I'm hounding
Through the cold and dark
Dread my hunger as I do

I'm searching for you
Oh, I'm searching for you
Fear my evil 'cause I do
Oh, I'm searching for you
Oh, I'm searching for you

A restless soul never settle
No more chance to escape
Evil's lurking behind you
Rising up taking shape

I care for nothing when I'm hunting
Trough the endless night
Fear my evil 'cause I do

I'm searching for you
Oh, I'm searching for you
Fear my evil 'cause I do
Oh, I'm searching for you
Oh, I'm searching for you

I care for nothing when I'm hunting
Trough the endless night
Fear my evil 'cause I do

I catch your blood scent when I'm hounding
Through the cold and dark
Dread my hunger as I do

I'm searching for you
Oh, I'm searching for you
