

Hello Out There

Engelbert Humperdinck

Hello out there, I see your face
No one else can take your place
Stayed all night out in the dark
Trying to mend a broken heart

Hello out there, if you could see
The kind of pain inside of me
I didn't mean for you to go
I miss your smile and your hello

Hello out there, what's on your mind
I didn't mean to be unkind
If I hurt you, I'm sorry now
I'll make it up to you somehow
Baby please, don't hide away
I want you more and more each day
There's no place for me to go in my life
I need you with me all the time

Hello out there, I see your face
I want to feel your warm embrace
And loving you so tenderly
Yes our love is destiny

Hello out there, if you could see
The kind of pain inside of me
I didn't mean for you to go
I miss your smile and your hello

Hello out there, what's on your mind
I didn't mean to be unkind
If I hurt you, I'm sorry now
I'll make it up to you somehow
Baby please, don't hide away
I want you more and more each day
There's no place for me to go in my life
I need you with me all the time

Hello out there, what's on your mind
I didn't mean to be unkind
If I hurt you, I'm sorry now
I'll make it up to you somehow
Baby please don't hide away
I want you more and more each day
There's no place for me to go in my life
I need you with me all the time
There's no place for me to go in my life
I need you with me all the time
