

If It Comes To That

Engelbert Humperdinck

Everybody tells me you're a woman with the past Quick to make a promise but your love will never last They tell me that I'm foolish to think that your love could be fair But they don't know that I'm too much in love to even care I'll be satisfied lovin' and losin' you honey
if it comes to that

If it comes right down to hurtin'
and you'll break this heart of mine At least I've known the happiness of havin' your love for a time
If it happens that I lose you then I'll have the memory of how you loved me I'll be yours until it happens and I'm gonna love you all the way I don't care what comes tomorrow as long as you're all mine today
I'll be satisfied lovin' and losin' you honey
if it comes to that

If it comes right down to hurtin'...
