

Just Like the First Time

Engelbert Humperdinck

Those places in my mind are never hard to find
And where it all began
Such golden memories
I hope will never change
A face of innocence
The girl I asked to dance
At only seventeen
Though my show was soon undone
I knew you were the one

You don't know me now
But in some way, somehow
Maybe there's a moment you are mine
So I hope you fall in love again each day
Just like the first time

I'll never have too much
Your smile your tender touch
A thousand times a day
But when the morning comes I'll be the face you see
As tides may ebb and flow
Your thoughts may come and go
But you are not alone
Let's live the here and now
As long as the fates allow

You don't know me now
But in some way, somehow
Maybe there's a moment you are mine
So I hope you fall in love again each day
Just like the first time

I hope you fall in love again each day
I'll be there for you in every way
So I hope we fall in love again each day
Just like the first time
