Engineers

Listen closely to me now
Don't blame yourself for times that you wanna leave
List your reasons for me now
You can't find the words
And I'm sure that you won't tomorrow

You can't start a fire as the falling rain gets stronger
What is it you say now?
You are too high to face the facts
Then you say you wish you're someone else
'Cos then you'd just press rewind
'Cos I'm not checking up

This whole act is falling down
Your words won't cut me down for another day
I hope you find what you're missing
You feel fine today
I can tell that you won't tomorrow

You can't start a fire as the falling rain gets stronger
What is it you say now?
You are too high to face the facts
Then you say you wish you're someone else
'Cos then you'd just press rewind
'Cos I'm not checking up
