

Lovin' Somebody On A Rainy Night

England Dan & John Ford Coley

Oh, there ain't nothing like
Lovin' somebody on a rainy, rainy night

Well, the moon is changing faces
Playing hide and seek with the clouds
They're arranging nature's symphony
As the concert call goes out
Bringing lovers close together
To hear a tin roof lullaby

'Cause there ain't nothing like
Lovin' somebody on a rainy, rainy night

There's an age old lover's anthem
In each celestial waterfall
It's a song that can't be sung
But can be heard by one and all
With that sweet romantic melodies
Descended from the sky

Oh, there ain't nothing like
Lovin' somebody on a rainy, rainy night

When the sky it seems like it's falling
And the world is growing dim
Take yourself and your lover and go on in
Just let it rain

Oh, there ain't nothing like
Lovin' somebody on a rainy, rainy night

When the sky it seems like it's falling
And the world is growing dim
Take yourself and your lover and go on in
Just let it rain

There ain't nothing like
Lovin' somebody on a rainy, rainy night
