

Simone

England Dan & John Ford Coley

Simone, why do you cry?
Don't you know your tears will dry?
And take away the loneliness
There inside, oh, if you try

Simone, why do you cry?
Don't you know the sun will shine?
And on your merits all you find
Reflections go, oh, I said you would

You've been searching everywhere
For something to believe in
You've been searching, it's never there
Reach your own, look and you'll know

Simone, why do you cry?
Don't you know you've got a life?
Now don't waste it all inside

Come on, Simone
Come on, Simone
Come on, Simone
Go

Simone, why do you cry?
Don't you know the sun will shine?
And take away the loneliness
There inside, oh, if you try
