Carol

English Dogs

She rises like an early bird Then runs around. It's so absurd No-one knows what goes on In her mind, "The Land of Far Beyond" What goes on, so far beyond

Carol oh Carol What do you see Through your eyes of obscurity Your tortured mind won't let you free Carol oh Carol Please tell me

A giggle, a smile and off she goes Like the wind, away she blows A cafe or a pub she'll be there A glass of water and that empty stare She'll be there, an empty stare

Carol oh Carol

Nobody knows what she's really like The mindless spinster on her bike But don't dismiss her as a lunatic It could be one almighty trick A lunatic, almighty trick
