

Will someone tell me who is the enemy?
And show your hands to me , if you don't want more casualty
In a car or watching the Cup game
In a Maze , trying to get the way out or die.
Since the day that I've been born , there's a country that's be en torn.
Cynicism and suspicion
Can't stop my clear vision
To start a new future now

Lay down your arms
Lay down your arms
Nationalists , terrorists
Religious fundamentalists
It's been a long time so lay down your arms

Forgive and forget you this movement's at an early stage
Join in the peace line there should never be anymore bloody day

In a car or watching the Cup game
In a Maze , trying to get the way out or die.
It's a violent chess contest , the pawns are the masses
Cynicism and suspicion
Can't stop my clear vision
To start a new future now

Lay down your arms
Lay down your arms
Nationalists , terrorists
Religious fundamentalists
It's been a long time so lay down your arms

The only one who gains is the bloody undertaker, trouble no one wants , lay down your arms.

Melt them down
Throw them out
Cease the fire
Turn them round sterilize paralyse
Lay down your arms
Lay down your arms
