

False Prophet

English Dogs

May god have mercy on your souls
Your endless list of dreadful sins
Doomed to burn in the fires of hell
You shall be damned for all eternity
But at least there's still a solution
If you make a large contribution

There is a false prophet amongst us
There is a false prophet in our midsts

Empty your pockets, sacrifice you every possession
And your vices will be forgiven for the moment
I'll lift the burden from your shoulders
When you come to confession
Insurance for a heavy donation

There is a false prophet amongst us
There is a false prophet in our midsts

May god have mercy on your souls
Your endless list of dreadful sins
Doomed to burn in the fires of hell
You shall be damned for all eternity
But at least there's still a solution
If you make a large contribution

There is a false prophet amongst us
There is a false prophet in our midsts
