

Lay Down Your Arms

English Dogs

Will someone tell me
Who is the enemy
And show your hand to me
If you don't want more casualty

In a car watching on the cup game
In a maze trying to get the way out or die
Since the day that I was born
There's a country that's been torn

Cynicism and suspicion
Can't stop my clear vision
To start a new future now

Wow
Lay down your arms
Lay down your arms Wow
Nationalists, Terrorists
Religious fundamentalists
It's been a long time so lay down your arms

So forgive and forget you
This movement's at an early stage
Join in the peace line
There should never be more bloody days

In a car watching on the cup game
In a maze trying to get the way out or die

It's a violent chess contest
The pawns are the masses

Cynicism and suspicion
Can't stop my clear vision
To start a new future now

Wow
Lay down your arms Wow
Lay down your arms
Nationalists, Terrorists
Religious fundamentalists
It's been a long time so lay down your arms

The only one who gains is the bloody undertaker

Melt them down, throw them out, cease the fire
Turn them round, sterilise, paralyse
Lay down your arms, lay down your arms

Lay down your arms
Lay down your arms
Lay down your arms
Lay down your arms

Melt them down, throw them out, cease the fire
Turn them round, sterilise, paralyse
Lay down your arms, lay down your arms
