English Dogs

Worked all your life for that rainy day
Well now it's here and the sky don't look too clear
Like you , your saving's waste away
You'll meet the angels before your time is here

No life of privacy , the house is gone (It's irrelevant)
No secrets left to share but life goes on (It's irrelevant)
You've always paid your way obeyed the rules (It's irrelevant)
Is your reward to come , have you been fooled (It's irrelevant)

Your reduction Never touched 'em
waste in a bloody body factory
Your reduction Never touched 'em
So you just waste and pay

Now life's a piss stinking room
Fumes of embarrassment seep out from your cocoon
Regressed back to your infancy
Facing forwards going backwards that's no life for me

No life of privacy , the house is gone (It's irrelevant)
No secrets left to share but life goes on (It's irrelevant)
You've always paid your way obeyed the rules (It's irrelevant)
Is your reward to come , have you been fooled (It's irrelevant)

Your reduction Never touched 'em
waste in a bloody body factory
Your reduction Never touched 'em
So you just waste and pay

That was your life
Was that a life
What sort of life
Your generations gone

Your reduction Never touched 'em
waste in a bloody body factory
Your reduction Never touched 'em
So you just waste and pay
Your reduction Never touched 'em
waste in a bloody body factory
Your reduction Never touched 'em
So you just end your fucking day
