

The Eye Of Shamahn

English Dogs

Armed in your search for the messenger of death
Only with fortune, a gift from the gods
Your quest ends in the land of lost souls
You must return with the saviour of all

On into a time that you cannot see
Do you know your fate?
Warrior of hope set the standard high
Let your people live
What awaits you there?
Maybe certain death, but you must go on
Messenger of death, keeper of the Eye
Stolen from the gods

Feel fear in your quest for the Eye of Shamahn

Now you should know the all evil awaits
Terror on the plains faced by demons from Hell
Look at their eyes they will turn you to stone
Reaching for the end in a world of your own

On into a time that you cannot see
Do you know your fate?
Warrior of hope set the standard high
Let your people live
What awaits you there?
Maybe certain death, but you must go on
Messenger of death, keeper of the Eye
Stolen from the gods

Feel fear in your quest for the Eye of Shamahn

Out from the gates disappear in night sky
Onto the plains in your quest for the Eye
Treasures and wealth waiting on your return
To redeem the stone of which all your land yearns

On into a time that you cannot see
Do you know your fate?
Warrior of hope set the standard high
Let your people live
What awaits you there?
Maybe certain death, but you must go on
Messenger of death, keeper of the Eye
Stolen from the gods

Feel fear in your quest for the Eye of Shamahn

Speed on your way, the people will pray
For your arrival back home with the saviour of the Eye
Call on your powers, only in your darkest hours
The symbol of the Eye decides whether your people die
