

Turn Away From The Light

English Dogs

Deaf to the life all around , insanity looms
Fiery elysium fields, a monstrous glow
Fatal attraction desires, the chair and the noose
Friends are defined by these moments in time, so
Turn, turn away from the light
If it's guidance you're after , your master is hiding in you
Turn, turn away from the light
The story is ending, is tragedy bending the truth?
Our father, who's not in heaven
Hollow be thy name
Thy kingdom's done
Thy will is run
By zombies spewing venom
Feed us this day our daily lies
And forgive us our restlessness
As we celebrate the visionaries
That lead us into temptation
Misery, when you got no hope
The end of a rope aint the fix you're after Tragedy holds a memory, broken, bruised
Sanctuary is a darkened room
Clarity looms when you're fading fast
Therapy is a shotgun blast away
The architect of your demise no surprise that it's you
An innocent victim , a false propheteer huh?
Hand clapping into the promised land dance to the tune Song 666

Bible in hand, their demands will break you
Turn, turn away from the light
If it's guidance you're after , your master is hiding in you
Turn, turn away from the light
The story is ending, is tragedy bending the truth?
Cut the umbilical, be analytical fool
Captain disasterous, they'll never take you alive
Master and servant entangled eternally
Turn away
Turn away
Turn away
Turn your face from the light
