Sign
Sign on top of bills that are suddenly surging
The right price, I only learned through tears
I don't wanna let you go
Can we turn back, no time
The time piles on top of the love that needs to be repaid
The price of parting keeps getting more and more expensive
I just wanna let it go
Why don't you just let me go, me go?

An appropriate ending
Not a hateful last time
Of all the breakups
I think this would be a good example, right?
A sweet sense of liberation
My heart winds up my problems
It was fun for a while

One day, the invoice that you stuck on me
The pain that became my share
I'm sure I paid for it
I thought about it, it's not paid

Sign
Sign on top of bills that are suddenly surging
The right price, I only learned through tears
I don't wanna let you go
Can we turn back, no time
The time piles on top of the love that needs to be repaid
The price of parting keeps getting more and more expensive
I just wanna let it go
Why don't you just let me go, me go?

I feel like as if it was overdue
Much bigger than love
After a price-charging breakup
Yeah
Last conversation with you
An endless night
Follow your traces
All night

Loneliness grows like a snowball
Gradually increasing
How much must it hurt

'Til I can pay it all back

Sign

Sign on top of bills that are suddenly urging
The right price I only learned through tears
I don't wanna let you go
Can it be turned back, no time
The time piles up on top of the love that needs to be repaid
It keeps getting more and more expensive, the price of parting
I just wanna let it go
Why don't you just let me go?

(Have to pay) Torn heart

(Have to pay) The price of parting

(Have to pay) with my tears

It is not enough
