I don't, don't, don't give a what

I don't give a what
I don't give a what

Whatever they call fate
I don't give a what
The karma of blood that connects us
So I don't give a what
Across time and space
Beyond probability
From the day you were tied to your fangs
I don't give a what (Yeah)

Any reasoning is unappealing
We're more like one than twins (Ooh-ooh)
Beyond familiarity, when we initially met
I noticed that they were entwined and linked together (Ooh-ooh)

Deep inside your heart
Will you tie me up forever?
Oh, yeah
You stay where you are

Whatever they call fate
I don't give a what
The karma of blood that connects us
So I don't give a what
Across time and space
Beyond probability
From the day you were tied to your fangs
I don't, don't, don't give a what

I don't give a what
I don't give a what

No matter how hard solving it, it won't work out
Tied up in knots on top of the two of us
It's more resilient than any other world we lived
I won't fall, this world, this moment

Whenever I'm in you
I'll sit in your veins
Oh, yeah
You lean on me

Whatever they call fate
I don't give a what

The karma of blood that connects us
So I don't give a what
Across time and space
Beyond probability
From the day you were tied to your fangs
I don't, don't, don't give a what

I don't give a what
I don't give a what

In the next life, the next life
I'll definitely visit you
In the next life, the next life
Together forever

Whatever they call fate
I don't give a what
The karma of blood that connects us
So I don't give a what

I don't give a what
I don't give a what
