

The Nightmare of Atomic Men

Enon

Yow!

With our deep sharp fangs and long thin bangs

We're coming out to get you now!

Here there we go

Posting our neon threats across your T.V. sets

We're come to eat your pets and then we'll take you to go

The nightmare of atomic men is reaching us on earth

I discovered it in my room with my dope telescope

He carries sweetest candies in his pockets

I can see

Those candies have been hexed on with a secret sweetener

Don't you know?

Yeah!

And if you don't smell good like a meal should

You might just be a candidate for our wild date

So put your belts on tight and get ready tonight

We're gonna have some kind of party now don't be late

You will find an envelope with bingo card inside

Mysterious invitation to this masquerade
