

Beautiful

Enrique Iglesias

You, you are so beautiful

It used to be, you and me
Love like no other
Our world around, could fall apart
But we had each other
Saw you walking, you were smiling
And it hit me like the first time
Feels like yesterday has come and go
But nothing's changed when I look at you

You, you are so beautiful
You, you are so beautiful

And now I
I just want you to know
That after all this time
You're still the one

Still hurt sometimes
Love on the line
But we sad forever
Sailing all through the storms
But we had together

And now I
I just want you to know
That after all this time
You're still the one

You, you are so beautiful
You, you are so beautiful
And now I
I just want you to know
That after all this time
You're still the one

You, you are so beautiful
You, you are so beautiful
And now I
I just want you to know
That after all this time
You're still the one

You, you are so beautiful
You, you are so beautiful
