Enter The Haggis

Hey man, you're killing me, I've got some mouths to feed
You're knocking on my door, my vote could count for more
I know it's not always clear, stand up, there's no barrel to yo ur ear!

They will talk the talk like a barstool prophet
Shake the hands in town, kiss the baby, now buy us a round
Hard to find your way in a TV masquerade
How can we see what we believe in being just like the other one s, just like the other ones

Hey man, I like your style, pinstripes and chamomile 10 billion dollar smile, tears like a crocodile Always sure to draw a crowd, skip the show, just take the troph y now!

They will talk the talk like a barstool prophet

Shake the hands in town, kiss the baby, now buy us a round
Hard to find your way in a TV masquerade
How can we see what we believe in being just like the other one
s, just like the other ones

Hey man, you're killing me, I've got some mouths to feed
You're knocking on my door, my vote could count for more

We all know they're all the same, sit down, close your eyes and check a name

They will talk the talk like a barstool prophet
Shake the hands in town, kiss the baby, now buy us a round
Hard to find your way in a TV masquerade
How can we see what we believe in being just like the other one
s, just like the other ones
