

King Of Ruination

Enterprise Earth

Suffer in your bastardized assimilation
Too many times the arbitrary methods of civilization
Reconstruct your framework
Reconstruct

Fall in line for extermination, your frailty has shown
Hail the King of Ruination
Trench knives in surgeons' hands to save you
The method of your failure
Chaos you shall believe in, forever

Trench knives in surgeons' hands to save you
Chaos you shall believe

Kill everything you can, step on every neck
The climb to humanity is downward and direct
Buried deep with your stolen possessions
The curse that they bring spells vengeance
Breeding in incubation
Reconstruct

Fall in line for extermination, your frailty has shown
Hail the King of Ruination
Trench knives in surgeons' hands to save you
The method of your failure
Chaos you shall believe in, forever

"Unsparing, the feeling of shredding
The peeling of a species, they bleed
Thwarted breeding in sequence, misleading
The creeping that leaves you excreting
With the knife, you've slit your own throat
The panic has set in, cannot be constrained, they all die
Demise
Still you shout, frantic natural end
Unnatural selection
Until the last drop you had not begged for the grace of the martyr's tears
Now to begin everlasting descent, you are fucked
Was it worth the wait?
Souls aflame in the blaze of my hate."

Suffer inside of your decrepit fucking tomb
An echo chamber of all the infected fucking shit you vipers spew
God will deny you, Hell won't embrace you, such simple fools
Chaos you shall fucking believe in forever

Fall in line for extermination, your frailty has shown
Hail the King of Ruination
Trench knives in surgeons' hands to save you
The method of your failure
Chaos you shall believe in, forever

All Hail the King of Ruination, All Hail
All Hail the King of Ruination, All Hail
