

Spineless

Enterprise Earth

Pathetic

Every step you take's in the wrong direction
Too weak to keep up at my pace
You turn your head
A blind eye to everyone who held you up
When you were caving in

Spineless

Every move you make is so miscalculated
Fatal error, you planned your own execution
Open invitation, send word to the masters
It's free entertainment
Your misery is my crowning achievement

Usurper

This throne was never yours to take
Hiding behind your faux transparency
Bullshit ascendancy
Force feeding lies through your own teeth
Do you think it's convincing?

You, you wanna take it all away?
You never had what it takes to be the fucking king
You, you wanna see the things that I've seen?
Stare into the sun with me
You'll never be, you'll never be
You'll never be the fucking king
You'll never be, you'll never be
You'll never be the fucking king
You wanna see the things that I've seen?
Stare into the sun with me

Your coronation

A desperate attempt at consecration
Such a fucking coward
You spineless sack of festering skin
You'll never be, you'll never be
You'll never be the fucking king
Pathetic, your legacy flawed
Every legend dies a fucking fraud
Every legend dies a fucking fraud (fuck!)

Weak and diseased

Lie through your teeth
Pathetic, your legacy flawed
Every legend dies a fucking fraud

You, you wanna take it all away?
You never had what it takes to be the fucking king
You, you wanna see the things that I've seen?
Stare into the sun with me
You'll never be, you'll never be
You'll never be the fucking king
You'll never be, you'll never be
You'll never be the fucking king
You wanna see the things that I've seen?
Stare into the sun with... me!

Weak and diseased
Lie through your teeth
Pathetic, your legacy flawed
Every legend dies a fucking fraud

Every legend dies a fucking fraud
Every legend dies a fucking fraud
Every legend dies a fucking fraud
Every legend dies a fucking fraud
Spineless
