

The Chosen

Enterprise Earth

Will you answer the call?
Will you rise when the lions roar?
Will you rise or will you fall?
It doesn't matter if you lose when you stand tall
In the end you gave it your all

Get on your feet and face the battle
You have nothing to lose
Just everything to prove
I know it's fucking hard
But leave that thought behind
And stand with me in hell
Now get up and prove this to yourself

Get up, get up, get up
Prove this to yourself
Get up, get up
Stand with me in hell

It's now or never
Don't regret this moment forever
It's moments like this where we belong
A chance to prove that we are strong
It's not too late
Embrace the moment and choose your fate
We may live or die
But we will always defy

We will defy all those who stand in our way
We can't be imprisoned unless it's our own decision
I'm ashamed I let them make me think that this was free
Chained up and ready to bleed

I'm ashamed I let them make me think that this was free
I'm chained up and ready to bleed
I'm chained up and ready to bleed
To bleed

Rise up, rise up
How long have we spilled our blood?
We will not give up
Until these walls are destroyed
Rise up, rise up (Rise up, rise up)
We will not give up
Destroy

It's now or never
Don't regret this moment forever
It's moments like this where we belong
A chance to prove that we are strong
It's not too late
Embrace the moment and choose your fate
We may live or die
But we will always defy

Will you answer the call?
Will you rise when the lions roar?

Will you rise or will you fall?
It doesn't matter if you lose when you stand tall
In the end you gave it your all

Will you answer the call?
Will you rise when the lions roar?
Will you rise or will you fall?
It doesn't matter if you lose when you stand tall
In the end you gave it your all

Get the fuck up

Will you answer the call?
Will you rise when the lions roar?
Will you rise or will you fall?
It doesn't matter if you lose when you stand tall
In the end you gave it your all
You gave it your all
