

Oblivion

Entheos

Time will take us
Time will take us
Time will take us
Time will take us

Nowhere to run
Silence on the horizon
But I had been lost in the sound

I've been wondering where the time has gone
It wasn't ours all along
It wasn't ours all along

Don't look down yet
Float here in oblivion
And if I fall
What will I have to learn when I touch down?

I know that we
Are in the shadow of a fading sun
And it all will circle back again

Let it come, and let it pass
It all will burn
These sentimental things are all lost in their own time
And the days slip away from us

If only we'd known
That life moves along
We'd come back to earth

I know all things
That have begun must also one day face their end
And we all will circle back to dust
Let it all in, fall to the ground and breathe in

Fall to the ground and breathe
Push
Push
To be one of us
To be one of us

Push
Push
To be one of us
To be one of us

Push, push
Dead eyes, black and cold
To be one of us
Left behind and what follows?
To be one of us

Push, push
Dead eyes, black and cold
To be one of us

To be one of us

Dead eyes, black and cold

Dead eyes black and cold
