

Midas In Reverse

Entombed

The open road
Spoils there for the taking
Lose all dead load
Leave your abode
Grade up in the making
This you've been told
As much as one
Can find feed relentless greed
No bother disregard
Just get more than you need

Next thing you know
You're riding in a hearse
Those struggles
Turned to shit
All of a sudden you're
King Midas in reverse

Shadow howlin'
One last time
Reaper scowling
Devoured lost in time
Dead age Dawning
Lay to waste
Down you're falling
Hellfire embraced

The road is closed
No pass no way back there
Path undisclosed

What you don't know
Betrayal this you will bear
Eternal ghost
Now that you're left behind lost all you hold dear
Redemption sacrifice worth none you're stuck right here

For all you know
You're riding in a hearse
Those struggles turned to shit
All of a sudden you're
King Midas in reverse

Shadow howlin'
One last time
Reaper scowling
Devoured lost in time
Dead age dawning
Lay to waste
Down you're falling
Hellfire embraced

Now you have slipped
At last
The bonds of time
The wasted years of the past
Are not undone

You will find
There are other times
Other lives
Beyond that veil of death

All of a sudden you're
King Midas in reverse

Shadow howlin'
One last time
Reaper scowling
Devoured lost in time
Dead age dawning
Laid to waste
Hellfire embraced
