Suffer

Entrails

The Sun no longer rises, forever it's night
The living is now fleeing all's living in fright
They're haunted by the evil that's stalking them all
Their purpose is to slay all till all is gone
They hate all that's living and worships the dead
Engulfing souls of all men they need it to be fed
Hiding in the darkness faster than light
Grimmer than the devil murder with might

(Pre-chorus)
All that's haunted by the dark the mightiest monarchs
And no remorse for men killing is making sense
No chance to act at all 'cause soon you'll all be gone
This is your last goodbye cause all of you will

Die by sharpened blood blade, your time has come to fade
Flames devour the land no one will stand my blade
Slicing-dicing killing soon, I'm satisfied
When no ones still is breathing and all of you have died

Blood engulfing the Earth
The dark, all evil rebirth
Off your throne you will fall
In the darkest cold

(Chorus)
Suffer - the birth of all that's dark
Suffer - the rise of the monarchs
Suffer - your time has come to bleed
Suffer - the world inferno now lives

Prepare cause soon all is black
This is our final attack
The act is brutal and grim
The cause you'll burn in sin

(Chorus)
Suffer - the birth of all that's dark
Suffer - the rise of the monarchs
Suffer - your time has come to bleed
Suffer - the world inferno now lives

I'm emptying them of blood
Let it flow, it mixed with mud
Rising up, death is all I see
It's your fate, you're doomed to bleed

All who ones were breathing is now forever killed
The crows are eating corpses, the seas with blood are filled
Picking the eye sockets feasting on dead flesh
I smile and feel it warms me, I heard a child's last breath
The Earth is now wasteland that's filled with all dried blood
All that was is now gone, an act of evil's are gone
I brought forever darkness and murdered all of you
You thought you could survive this, but all of you were doomed

(Pre-chorus)

All that's haunted by the dark the mightiest monarchs
And no remorse for men killing is making sense
No chance to act at all 'cause soon you'll all be gone
This is your last goodbye cause all of you will

The Sun no longer rises, forever it's night
The living is now fleeing all's living in fright
They're haunted by the evil that's stalking them all
Their purpose is to slay all till all is gone

(Chorus)
Suffer – the birth of all that's dark
Suffer – the rise of the monarchs
Suffer – your time has come to bleed
Suffer – the world inferno now lives
