

The Hour of the Casket

Entrails

I come with the wind, in the darkest hour
I had a mission to fight a war

Searching by the faith
For the strongest power
To kill and be fed - with the unborn child

(Pre-chorus)

I come with fire from the darkest hole
To dominate the Earth and rule the world
I concur them with hatred and slay their souls
And from my throne, I watch a dying world

(Chorus)

The final chapter was written
And mankind was forgotten
Their souls are dead and rotten
The hour of the casket

I, I rise in fire, in flames I rule
Then burn the living you all are doomed
I use my power to spread the plague
Your lives and souls fades away

(Pre-chorus)

I come with fire from the darkest hole
To dominate the Earth and rule the world
I concur them with hatred and slay their souls
And from my throne, I watch a dying world

(Chorus)

The final chapter was written
And mankind was forgotten
Their souls are dead and rotten
The hour of the casket
