

The Soul Collector

Entrails

Summoned I was
By the dead
Ordered by the lord
No need to repent

(Bridge)
Risen to scourge the Earth
Hunting the human since birth
Murder, by death they will fall
To collect their souls, once and for all

Gather my wolf pack
Of spellbound men
Under my command
None is forgiven
We come for you all

Sorcery by the hand through the flesh
Souls of men, I collect
The living is fleeing
Snatch their soul, enforcing them, in my men
Stuffing them one by one
Till they will explode

(Chorus)
The defiler of light, collector of souls
The bringer of darkness, collector of souls

No weapons needed, I kill by thought
Your soul I crave
Hating the living
Unholy ghosts of the unknown
Carries your soul

Hating the living
They are possessed by my command
Evil of hell
Hating the living
The devils spell, I cast with wrath
I watch you die
Hating the living

Despites all life, I want you gone
You worthless fools
Killing the living
Ancient chaos, brought to Earth
Prepare for death
Killing the living

Death I brought
To them all
Evil I spawned
Daytime is doomed

(Bridge)
Risen to scourge the Earth

Murder, by death they will fall
To collect their souls, once and for all

All living is gone
Soulless corpses
Covers the earth
The world inferno has been brought

(Pre-chorus)
Sorcery by the hand through the flesh
The living is fleeing
Stuffing them one by one
Till they will explode

(Chorus)
The defiler of light, collector of souls
The bringer of darkness, collector of souls
The defiler of light, collector of souls
The bringer of darkness, the soul collector
