

I'll B the 1 2 Luv U

Enuff Z'Nuff

Is there something in the air
That says that you'll be here tonight?
So I change some things around
Put dimmer bulbs in the lights
I've rented two new videos
I've got some candy for your nose

And baby all you've gotta do
Is still be holding me
When morning comes
(All you've gotta do)
(All you've gotta do)
Nothing's gotta change
And you don't have to make promises
I'll be the one to love you

There is nothing that makes me feel
The way I feel when you leave
'Cause I don't know where you go

I don't know what to believe
So I'll just keep my arms around you girl
And I'll protect you from the world

And baby all you've gotta do
Is still be holding me
When morning comes
(All you've gotta do)
(All you've gotta do)
Nothing's gotta change
And you don't have to make promises
I'll be the one to love you

The one to bring you up
The one to bring you down
The one that's got enough
To keep you hanging 'round
I'll be the one to start the show
