

Superstitious

Enuff Z'Nuff

Seen you in the underground,
A loser to your game.
The people that you hung around
Have led you all astray.

So don't be superstitious
This is your lucky day.
There's a brand new situation
You're the one that's here to stay.

Seems you didn't have the grind
To get you through the line.
But now you're stuck in overdrive
And all you need is time.

When all you want is drugs and money,
Nothing can come quick enough.
Everything in this world is funny.
You've got to bear it all,
Hold on and be tough.

Seen you in the underground,
A loser to your game.
But now I think you'll stick around
And everyone will know your name.
