

Fail-safe

Eowyn

It's still a mystery, am I really seen
Or just this portait on the wall
That's left for ash and dust
Who can I now trust?
If not you, then I know this
I will lose my way

You're my fail-safe, when nothing else felt safe
I'm losing control, don't let me go
I'm letting you know, I need you more
My fail-safe, security fail-safe
Cause you are the key to sanity
You are the hope to tragedy

With every breath I take
Relying on your strength
I thank God I'm not alone
In truth, everything that you've said
Makes me so full of life not dead
Awakened by your very words
There is much to say

You're my fail-safe, when nothing else felt safe
I'm losing control, don't let me go
I'm letting you know, I need you more
My fail-safe, security fail-safe
Cause you are the key to sanity
You are the hope to tragedy

You always knew me better
You always knew me better

When I lost my way
Left without a trace
I'd return cause you knew me better

When I lost my way
I'd return cause you knew me better

In every way

You're my fail-safe, when nothing else felt safe
I'm losing control, don't let me go
I'm letting you know, I need you more
My fail-safe, security fail-safe
Cause you are the key to sanity
You are the hope to tragedy

You're my fail-safe, when nothing else felt safe
I'm losing control, don't let me go
I'm letting you know, I need you more
My fail-safe, security fail-safe
Cause you are the key to sanity
And you are the hope to tragedy
