

Forevermore

Epica

I see an angel in the sky
She's reaching out to me
The light around her is divine

I see the ocean in her eyes
Our thoughts will intertwine
In the fullness of our time

Then she takes me by the hand
And whispers in my ear

Walk up the stairway to heaven;
We'll wander far beyond the stars
You only have to confide in me
And I'll be yours forevermore

Not knowing if I'm wide awake
Or if I'm vast asleep
To realize what's going on
Her presence is taking over me,
Caught in a reverie
We know our worlds lie far apart

Then she takes me by the hand
And all becomes so clear

We'll walk up the stairway to heaven;
We'll wander far beyond the stars
You only have to confide in me
And I'll be yours forevermore
We'll walk in the heaven so high above,
Where we will be in celestial spheres
If you'd only depend on me,
I shall be yours forevermore

(I shall fight with all my strength
To hunt you down (To hunt you down)
I shall cheat without remorse
If that's the only way)

He whispers in my ear

We'll walk up the stairway to heaven;
We'll wander far beyond the stars
You only have to confide in me
And I'll be yours forevermore
We'll walk in the heaven so high above,
Where we will be in celestial spheres
If you'd only depend on me,
I shall be yours forevermore

You and me forevermore
