No place to go, no place to go
No place to go, no place to go
No place to go, no place to go
We've got no place to go, no place to go
No place to go, no place to go
No place to go, no place to go

No place to go, no place to go
No place to go, no place to go
No place to go, no place to go
We've got no place to go, no place to go
No place to go, no place to go
No place to go, no place to go

My heaven
My heaven
Is you

You are so beautiful to me
Your arms are a pillow that holds up my falling head
I confess the only truth in the world to you
In the gaps of my heart, only music and you exist
Sometimes, being jealous, everyone would whine
We would release the dam of tears in people's hands

But it's noble, what's important is us
I suggest love rather than any other words
Though they say everything changes from day to day
You and I will always walk the same path, every morning and night
I hope we'll be together like the ring of Saturn when we're going through the thornbush of hardships
With my two hands, I paint a beautiful harmony on the paper then fall asleep
Even when I wake up and look at it again, the harmony does not die
Like that, we melt into eternity

No place to go, no place to go
No place to go, no place to go
No place to go, no place to go
We've got no place to go, no place to go
No place to go, no place to go
No place to go, no place to go

Sometimes, I risk my life chasing after the dream of many Money earns itself, and that moment is when my soul becomes dirty and rusted
But, the power that raises me up when I'm falling - it's the music
A burden that I carry on my back with a smile
And it's you girl, you give meaning to my music
A perfect peace, time stands still on the clock
In this cold world, you comfort me every second
My heart beats within the BPM called you
'Cause you're my heaven, a line of destiny that the god has given us
You must be my saviour, you cannot deny it
You're the dazzling light and shield when I'm walking through the fog of evil
It's you, you're the breath I'm taking
Yeah, it's you, you're the dream that I'm dreaming
You give me the ocean when I want a drop of water, and the desert when I want a grain of sand

No place to go, no place to go
No place to go, no place to go
No place to go, no place to go
We've got no place to go, no place to go
No place to go, no place to go
No place to go, no place to go

My heaven
My heaven
Is you
