

Path of Destiny

Equilibrium

More pain, more gain
Another reason for you to complain
Coming from a black-white screen
That coldness makes you scream

Depraving, enslaving
Entirely appraising
These stones are way too small
So kill 'em all

I spread my arms and run
My quest has just begun
My mind is free
For my reality

So many ways to fly
No need to justify
My mind so free
This is my destiny

All gone, all right
Entering just another fight
You've got to learn every rule
You've got to tell them 'shut up fool'

Then take it and break it
'Cause that's the only way to make it
Your goal for the next decade
Is to become a renegade

I spread my arms and run
My quest has just begun
My mind is free
For my reality

So many ways to fly
No need to justify
My mind so free
This is my destiny

Hier komm'n die prollgermanen im berserkerwahn,
Es gibt die breitaxt in die fresse und dann fliegt der zahn,
Alle schwänze in die luft an die metalfraktion,
Ihr habt die hörner and der hüfte, wir die schwerter aus carbon,
Reiten zum freudenhaus und pflügen deine mama,
Dieser sound ist wie der Mjöllnir, Wingthors Hammer,
Wir hol'n die goldketten raus und du hast eingenässt,
Denn es ist e zu dem Equilibrium und T zum B zum S, junge.

I spread my arms and run
My quest has just begun
My mind is free
For my reality

So many ways to fly
No need to justify
My mind so free

This is my destiny
