

Freedom

Era

I heard a song
Sounded like a dream
The words said [?]
Love their children too
But when the tide goes wrong
Tears down a wall
Keep the fight, raise your voice
For freedom

We see the day begin
Now we start to cry
All around is one chaos
[?] devastation
Many fears inside of us
[?] still survive
The chanting in the crowd is to remind us
The dream remains alive

(Kyrie eleison)
If we rock a little harder
We (kyrie eleison) feel the energy grow strong
If we rock a little harder
This time (kyrie eleison) we fight for freedom
If we rock a little harder
We gotta keep the fight for freedom
(Kyrie eleison)

Too many lies we built
On violence and greed
Too many victories
While watching others bleed (kyrie eleison)
I feel the beat of life
The hope that dries in
The destiny of all life is suspended
It's you do or have

(Kyrie eleison)
If we rock a little harder
We (kyrie eleison) feel the energy grow strong
If we rock a little harder
This time (kyrie eleison) we fight for freedom
If we rock a little harder
We gotta rock a little harder, yeah
Rock a little harder
(Kyrie eleison) yeah, and give the fight for freedom

This time
(Kyrie eleison)
We gotta rock a little harder
(Kyrie eleison)
Yeah
(Kyrie eleison) rock a little harder
Yeah, and give the fight for freedom
For freedom
For freedom
For freedom

We (kyrie eleison) feel the energy grow strong
This time (kyrie eleison) we fight for freedom
For freedom
(Kyrie eleison) yeah, rock a little harder
