

A Bitter Parting

Erasure

Can't abide our sad goodbyes
I'll see you soon my friend
And though we are oceans apart
It seems you're always there

I'll catch you with a loving glance
We will have another chance

And it's a bitter parting with such sweet sorrow
But I guess we'll be just fine
And I wish us all a fond farewell
But just don't look back in time
And it's a bitter parting with such sweet sorrow
But you're in my heart entwined

Magic is the spark of life
To make the candle burn
Lighting up the darkest night
To show which way to turn

Take me in your loving arms
Meet me in another world

And it's a bitter parting with such sweet sorrow
But I guess we'll be just fine
And I wish us all a fond farewell
But just don't look back in time

And it's a bitter parting with such sweet sorrow
But I guess we'll be just fine
And I wish us all a fond farewell
But just don't look back in time

And it's a bitter parting with such sweet sorrow
But I guess we'll be just fine
And I wish us all a fond farewell
But just don't look back in time
