Same Game

Erasure

I was so defeated cause the things you told me were
I was so defeated cause the things that you told me were lies
Never to be repeated were the things that you promised me
Only to be heeded as I walked into your garden of lies

Did I do something wrong
Stringing me along for someone at your side

Go ahead enjoy yourself as if I don't exist
There's no need to satisfy fall blindly for a kiss tonight
Tonight

You tore me inside out
You turned me inside out
I will tear down the shrine (tear down the shrine)

It was never easy when you simply passed me by
You were so conceited when you simply passed me by Now tell me why

I was so defeated cause the things that you told me were
I was so defeated cause the things that you told me were lies

Did I do something wrong
Stringing me along for someone at your side

Go ahead enjoy yourself as if I don't exist
There's no need to satisfy fall blindly for a kiss tonight
Go ahead enjoy yourself as if I don't exist
I'm tired of your promises fall blindly for a kiss tonight
Tonight
