Erasure

On and on like a halo
Flown in the sky like a bright blue tornado

Don't as you're all alone
And I descent into something
Bang as you bang a drum
Like your heart on the floor

Ride like the love in your eyes
I do know you love me
Wide like the love in your eyes
Full of surprises for me

If I were you keep your halo
Crying alone in the night tears on your pillow

Don't as you risk it all
And I evolve into something
Sound as you bang a drum
Like a heart through the door

Ride like the love in your eyes
I do know you love me
Wide like the love in your eyes
Full of surprises for me
